TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN;

Mr. Gamini Prathapasinha is known to me since 2018. He is a committed person who contributed lot to the success of Economic Development Projects implemented by Berendina Development Services (BDS) in Sri Lanka. His knowledge and rich experience in Project formulation, coordination and networking was an asset to any organization dealing with disseminating best practices, technology to the village level community. Being an Economic and Value Chain Development Advisor Mr. Gamini assisted to initiate number of Economic and value chain development projects in BDS.

He is a good team player and willing to take challenging tasks and have experience of working under pressurized.

He concisely and clearly communicates and expresses himself before different audiences and having special ability to develop productive relationships with private sector to bring economic advantages to rural poor. I can recommend him without any hesitation for any suitable positions which requires dedication and commitment.

I wish him all the best.
